The 2007 Hinman Student Research Symposium was held on November 2 – 4, 2007, in the Peabody Hotel in downtown Memphis, Tennessee. President's Letter

Hinman Prepares for A Great 2008

Eddie Pafford
President

This time of year makes us all focus on the many blessings our great profession has provided. Let's all commit to New Year's resolutions of making our practices and profession even better.

Our November Membership Meeting was a huge success. Following Chairman Dunwody's lead of bringing more technology to Hinman, Dr. James Jesse presented 21st Century Laser-Assisted Dentistry. It was fascinating to watch videos of lasers being used in multiple applications. Thanks to Drs. Percy, Jordan, Weinman and Dellinger for their hard work in making our Society Meetings a success.

In November, Pam and I had the opportunity to represent our Society at the 13th annual Hinman Student Research Symposium in Memphis. This symposium, hosted by the University of Tennessee School of Dentistry, featured students' research projects from schools throughout the country and Canada. Our financial support allows some of the best and brightest to come together to present their respective research. We can all be proud of the fine reputation that Hinman enjoys because of our commitment to continuing education and academic excellence.

I hope you will attend our January 28 Society Meeting featuring Ms. Kelli Vrla's talk on "How to WOW-NOW: Keys to Jaw-Dropping Patient Service and How to Have More Fun and Get More Done". Please bring your staff for a fun-filled informative evening.

Hinman 2008 is fast approaching. General Chairman Dan Dunwody has assembled a unique program that is sure to please. The greatest strength of our Society is the dedicated hard work of our members at this meeting. If you have not been asked to serve on a committee, please call Kate at the Hinman office for an assignment. If possible, volunteer to work more than our required eight hours. Members who attend their committee meetings and serve at least eight hours at Hinman 2008 receive an invitation to the General Chairman and President's Reception following the opening session on Thursday night. Dan and I look forward to seeing everyone at the Georgia Aquarium that night.

Thank you for allowing me to serve as your President and thanks to our staff for making my job so enjoyable.

Regards,

Exciting New Changes in 2008

- ✦ Online handouts - Previously, Hinman has reproduced the paper handouts for all of the lectures where handout materials were provided. Should an attendee not read the instructions or leave their information at home, they will have the capability of printing the handouts on site at the CE stations where CE certificates are printed.
- ✦ This year, the Closing Session has a new face. There will be NO formal Closing Session on Saturday afternoon. Dr. Dunwody still wants to provide the complimentary refreshments for thirty minutes at the close of the meeting and exhibits (4 to 4:30 p.m.) just inside the GWCC entrance off the plaza. However, the prizes that are normally given away that afternoon will now be awarded at either the Auxiliary Reception on Friday night or the Dentist Reception on Saturday night.
- ✦ A professional video production company will offer dental professionals the opportunity to purchase video taping sessions that will result in brief DVD/CD formats for practice promotion or in video streaming format to attach to Web sites. All participants will be advised to adhere to the ADA Code of Ethics and rules and law from the state of Georgia and the State Board of Dentistry regarding self-promotion.
- ✦ A Question and Answer format will be provided in each lecture. Most of the speakers will allow time at the end of each lecture but some will build the questions into the lecture. The purpose is to provide a more interactive lecture.
- ✦ This year 67 participation courses will be offered throughout the meeting. Participation chairmen Brian Carpenter, Sedgie Newsom, Bob O'Donnell and Slade Lail are working hard to make these courses a success. ✦

General Chairman's Letter

Please Help Us Make Hinman 2008 the Best Meeting Ever

Dan Dunwody
General Chairman

Thanksgiving and the holiday season of 2007 are cherished memories of family, fellowship and the blessing of abundance in our country. Janet and I hope everyone rejoiced and relaxed. January has arrived. Hinman 2008 is only nine weeks away on March 13, 14 and 15. Let's get the show ready to roll.

Dr. Isler and Dr. Pafford, Ms. Sylvia Ratchford and the Hinman team have assembled a very creative varied program. Many changes and additions have been made this year. Committee meetings will be more important than usual. Clinic captains and hosts will be helping to provide the speakers with questions and answers from our attendees during and/or after presentations for a more interactive learning experience. Everyone will be answering attendee's questions about online handouts, onsite continuing education credits, and appointments with ToneSoup Video Production for their Web sites (your chance to become a movie star, if only for a few minutes). There will be an attraction on the exhibit floor beginning with a re-creation of Dr. Hinman's operatory and completed by the Hinman Digital Desktop area. The closing event will be more casual. Prizes will be awarded at the auxiliary party and dentist reception. Many more logistical details will be discussed.

Please help by serving your eight hours on at least one committee and attending the committee meeting. Thank you for your commitment to fine-tuning our Hinman standard of excellence.

Remember to send the note cards to invite friends to the Hinman this year. If you need more, Kate, in the Hinman office, will be glad to send them to you. Let's use Dr. Hinman's tradition of a personal invitation to help our meeting grow.

Our Hinman Dental Meeting is the benchmark for dental meetings because of our membership and supporting staff's commitment, enthusiasm, and persistence for excellent continuing education. I want to thank you and your families for helping us continue our tradition of excellence and southern hospitality. I serve humbly as your general chairman and look forward to seeing you at the Hinman Committee Meetings and the next best Hinman ever! Let's have fun!
